

Antwerp

in collaboration with Antwerp Tourism & Conventions

Antwerp, a busy pocket-sized metropolis, has something for everyone. The city is an inspiring source of culture thanks to its impressive architecture and magnificent museums and churches. Fashionistas can explore the stores of Antwerp's designers, whose stylish creations are revered all over the world. And foodies and people with a passion for life in general will enjoy the warm welcome of Antwerp's cafés and restaurants. A visit to Antwerp should definitely include the new museum MAS, the world famous Cathedral of Our Lady and the Rubens House, the home of Antwerp's most famous ambassador.

Events

Reunion. From Quinten Metsijs t...

In 1559 the Church of Our Lady was re-named the Cathedral of Our Lady. During its 450-year existence, the Cathedral has become...

Fashion: Happy Birthday Dear Ac...

Party time! This year Antwerp will be celebrating the 350th anniversary of the foundation of the Royal Academy of Fine Arts an...

Red Star Line: a new museum in ...

On September 28th the new Red Star Line Museum in Antwerp will open. Between 1873 and 1934 the Red Star Line's ships ferried 2...

The Golden Cabinet. The Royal M...

During the latter part of the sixteenth century and the early part of the seventeenth, the Scheldt city of Antwerp enjoyed an ...

About Coming and Going

The new Red Star Line Museum opens on 28 September in Antwerp. In its next exhibition "ABOUT COMING AND GOING" the Prints Room...

Top 5

MAS / Museum aan de Stroom

If you visit one museum in Antwerp make it MAS (open since 2011). The sixty-...

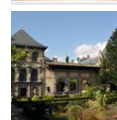

Cathedral of Our Lady

After 169 years of construction the cathedral of Antwerp finally dominated A...

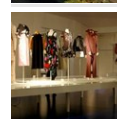

Red Star Line

Between 1873 and 1934 the Red Star Line's ocean steamers ferried about 2.6 m...

Rubens House

Step into the shoes of the leading Baroque artist of his era. Rubens and his...

MoMu / Fashion Museum

The Fashion Museum has a stunning collection of over 25,000 items including ...

THE CITY

Ask an Antwerp local about his city and he will pour you a Bolleke beer, face beaming, and tell you about its majestic Cathedral, about walks along the quays and about the city's master painter, Peter Paul Rubens. Antwerpers are known to be very proud of their city, and rightly so. For centuries, the port, which continues to expand, has contributed to a constant influx of the most diverse influences. As exotic spices landed on the quays, more and more intellectuals also set foot in this flourishing city, enriching Antwerp with their ideas and creations.

No wonder then that a city where so much is moving and shaking has become the ideal habitat for world leaders and luminaries. One such enlightened spirit, albeit of a rather despotic inclination, was Napoleon, who acquired the Royal Palace in Meir in 1812. There he quietly devised military strategies for his war against Britain. Antwerp seems like an easy place to lose your heart because another luminary, the Russian tsar Peter the Great, felt quite at home in the city, where he spent a considerable amount of time learning everything there was to know about shipbuilding.

In the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Antwerp already was a city with an international reputation, which extended far beyond the city's borders: it was reputed for its flourishing art trade and its bustling port, which turned the city into an economic hotspot. During this Golden Age Antwerp resembled present-day New York: it was a world city.

5 HOT TIPS

MAS / Museum aan de Stroom

If you visit one museum in Antwerp make it MAS (open since 2011). The sixty-metre high museum tower – an amazing feat of bold architecture – has become a new focal point in Antwerp. Here the city and the port (Europe's second biggest) meet in every sense of the word. The museum collection tells the story of the city, the port and the world and on the roof of MAS you can enjoy a 360° panoramic view of Antwerp.

Photo: Foto_Sarah_Blee__Neutelings_Riedijk_Architecten

Address: Hanzestedenplaats 1

Phone: +32 3 338 44 00

Internet: www.mas.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Cathedral of Our Lady

After 169 years of construction the cathedral of Antwerp finally dominated Antwerp's skyline in 1521 with a height of 123 metres. It was and still is the biggest Gothic building of the Low Countries. The Cathedral is a huge treasury of works of art. Eye-catchers include two masterpieces by Rubens: The Raising of the Cross and The Descent from the Cross. Currently the Cathedral is hosting a splendid exhibition, called Reunion, which showcases altarpieces from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in their original location. Absolutely worth visiting!

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Handschoenmarkt

Phone: +32 3 213 99 15

Internet: www.dekathedraal.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Red Star Line

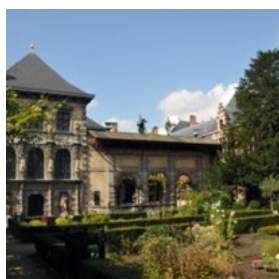

Between 1873 and 1934 the Red Star Line's ocean steamers ferried about 2.6 million adventurers and fortune seekers from Antwerp to New York. For many people their passage started in the Red Star Line buildings in Antwerp. This museum tells the story of these passengers. The old buildings render their feelings and emotions tangible and visible. This new Antwerp museum also examines the issue of migration today. The Red Star Line Museum opens on 27 September 2013.

Address: Montevideostraat 3

Internet: www.redstarline.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Rubens House

Step into the shoes of the leading Baroque artist of his era. Rubens and his family lived in this palatial setting for well over 25 years and it is here that the artist created the lion's share of his work. Here he entertained Europe's nobility and Royalty and stored his impressive art collection in a beautiful art room. The charming garden, the creators' workshop and the fabulous collection draws hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

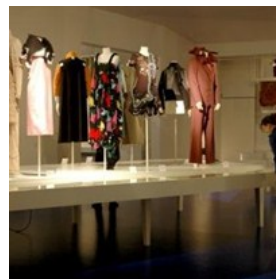

Address: Wapper 9-11

Phone: +32 3 201 15 55

Internet: www.rubenshuis.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

MoMu / Fashion Museum

The Fashion Museum has a stunning collection of over 25,000 items including clothes, shoes, accessories, lace and much more. It preserves historic costumes

as well as contemporary pieces. Every year the museum organises two themed exhibitions, featuring items from the museum's collection. Get ready for a beautifully illustrated expedition focussing on creativity, craftsmanship and trendy clothes.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Nationalestraat 28

Phone: +32 3 470 27 70

Internet: www.momu.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

DO & SEE

Today Antwerp continues to build on this rich history and positions itself as a modern metropolis. Although it always remains respectful of the numerous historic buildings, which bear witness to the city's rich history Antwerp today wants to become a city known for its iconic architecture.

Examples include the new Law Courts, the new MAS museum or the Port Authority building, which has been designed by renowned architect Zaha Hadid. The Antwerp Six are living proof of Antwerp's influence on the fashion world, and more generally spoken, on the art world, which thrives in Antwerp, especially in the Zuid district.

All this and more in a city where you can still sit down on a park bench and smell the roses and where you will never feel lost in the crowd. Antwerp succeeds in being a world-class city without ever forgetting about the importance of being a pleasant and above all liveable city.

MAS / Museum aan de Stroom

If you visit one museum in Antwerp make it MAS (which opened in 2011). The sixty-metre high museum tower – an amazing feat of bold architecture – has become a new focal point in Antwerp. Here the city and the port (Europe's second biggest) meet in every sense of the word. The museum collection tells the story of the city, the port and the world and on the roof of MAS you can enjoy a 360° panoramic view of Antwerp.

Photo: Foto_Sarah_Blee___Neutelings_Riedijk_Architecten

Address: Hanzestedenplaats 1

Phone: +32 3 338 44 00

Internet: www.mas.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Cathedral of Our Lady

After 169 years of construction the cathedral of Antwerp finally dominated Antwerp's skyline in 1521 with a height of 123 metres. It was and still is the biggest Gothic building of the Low Countries. The Cathedral is a huge treasury of works of art. Eye-catchers include two masterpieces by Rubens: The Raising of the Cross and The Descent from the Cross. Currently the Cathedral is hosting a splendid exhibition, called Reunion, which showcases altarpieces from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in their original location. Absolutely worth visiting!

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Handschoenmarkt

Phone: +32 3 213 99 15

Internet: www.dekathedraal.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Museum Mayer van den Bergh

In the late 1800's the passionate collector Fritz Mayer van den Bergh amassed an amazing art collection. He purchased paintings by Peter Brueghel for a pittance, managed to beat major museums purchasing stunning medieval sculptures. Mayer van den Bergh had an eye for the best quality in almost every genre. After his death his mother finally managed to make her son's dream come true: she built a museum, which only showcased his collection. And today Museum Mayer van den Bergh hasn't changed: it is still a museum of one man... and of his mother. Highly recommended in the Great smaller museums of Europe!

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Lange Gasthuisstraat 19
Phone: +32 3 232 42 37
Internet: <http://www.museumvandenbergh.be>

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Red Star Line

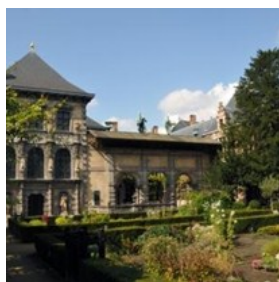

Between 1873 and 1934 the Red Star Line's ocean steamers ferried about 2.6 million adventurers and fortune seekers from Antwerp to New York. For many people their passage started in the Red Star Line buildings in Antwerp. This museum tells the story of these passengers. The old buildings render their feelings and emotions tangible and visible. This new Antwerp museum also examines the issue of migration today. The Red Star Line Museum opens on 27 September 2013.

Address: Montevideostraat 3
Internet: www.redstarline.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Rubens House

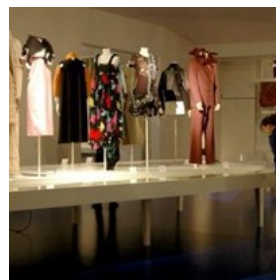

Step into the shoes of the leading Baroque artist of his era. Rubens and his family lived in this palatial setting for well over 25 years and it is here that the artist created the lion's share of his work. Here he entertained Europe's nobility and Royalty and stored his impressive art collection in a beautiful art room. The charming garden, the creators' workshop and the fabulous collection draws hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Wapper 9-11
Phone: +32 3 201 15 55
Internet: www.rubenshuis.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

MoMu / Fashion Museum

The Fashion Museum has a stunning collection of over 25,000 items including clothes, shoes, accessories, lace and much more. It preserves historic costumes

as well as contemporary pieces. Every year the museum organises two themed exhibitions, featuring items from the museum's collection. Get ready for a beautifully illustrated expedition focussing on creativity, craftsmanship and trendy clothes.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Nationalestraat 28
Phone: +32 3 470 27 70
Internet: www.momu.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Museum Plantin-Moretus

This museum gives an overview of book printing from the 15th until the 18th century and owns the worlds oldest printing press from around 1600. The stately town house also boasts period rooms, decorated with tapestries, gilt leather and paintings – including a Rubens, sculptures, earthenware and porcelain. The Museum

Plantin-Moretus/Prints Room received the ultimate recognition in 2005 and was named as a UNESCO world heritage and is the only museum worldwide to have been given this honour.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Vrijdagmarkt 22
Phone: +32 3 221 14 50
Internet: www.museumplantinmoretus.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

M HKA / Museum of Contemporary Art Antwerp

The Museum of Contemporary art or M HKA (Museum van Hedendaagse Kunst) is located in the bustling Zuid district, among the galleries and the lively cafés. Explore a fascinating collection of modern art in the old, converted corn silo. In 2013 M HKA will be organising several collection presentations as well as exhibitions by the Belgian artists De Gruyter & Thys and the American Kerry James Marshall.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Leuvenstraat 32
Phone: +32 3 260 99 99
Internet: www.muhka.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Saint Paul's Church

Near the river Scheldt you find Saint Paul's Church, the former Dominican church, which was completed in 1639. The church has some splendid Baroque altars, more than 200 statues and 50 paintings. Masterpieces by artists such as Jordaens, Rubens, Van Balen and Van Dyck emphasise the church's unique appeal. The Calvary garden looks like a set from an epic film about Christ's suffering and resurrection.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Veemarkt 1
Phone: +32 3 232 32 67
Internet: www.topa.be/sint-pauluskerk

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Antwerp Zoo

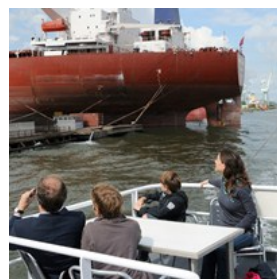

The Antwerp Zoo was founded in 1843. It is one of the oldest zoos worldwide and the oldest in Belgium. About 5.000 animals from 950 species live in the Antwerp Zoo. It also has an amazing garden and all the buildings in the zoo are listed buildings. A visit to the Antwerp Zoo is always a moment of sheer relaxation in the centre of the city.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Address: Koningin Astridplein 26
Phone: +32 3 202 45 40
Internet: www.zooantwerpen.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Boat tour along the Antwerp Port

Antwerp's port is the second largest port in Europe, covering a surface area of approximately 13.500 hectares. A boat trip is the ideal way to catch a glimpse of the impressive port operations and its seafaring giants, drawbridges and continuous bustling activity. Buy your ticket at least half an hour before the scheduled departure time.

Address: 14 Havenkaai, Londenstraat
Phone: +32 3 231 31 00
Internet: www.flandria.nu

Sightseeing tours

Horse and carriage Romantic at heart, Antwerp unfolds for those travelling at this deliciously slow yet charmingly old-fashioned and enjoyable pace. View the city as people did before Henry Ford did his thing! The horses depart under good weather conditions from Grote Markt near the Town Hall.

Antwerp Diamond Bus/ Touristram tours

Hop on the Antwerp Diamond double-decker bus and visit Antwerp's best-known hot spots. Hop on/hop off at any of the seven stops. New bus stop: MAS (Museum aan de Stroom). It's a first timers' ideal introduction to the city. Daily departures from April until November, the other months only in the weekend. The smaller Touristram also offers a carefree tour of the Antwerp classics. Departs hourly from Groenplaats between 12PM and 4PM.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres - fotograaf Dave Van Laere
Internet: www.werkendpaard.be/paardentram, www.touristram.be, www.antwerp-citytour-bus.be, www.koetsen-vervoort.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Bicycle rental

De Ligfiets Steenhoudersvest
25 +32 3 293 74 56
info@ligfiets.be Freewieler
Steenplein 1 +32 3 213 22 51
info@v-zit.be Fietshaven
Centraal Station Antwerpen

Centraal train station: level -1:
+32 3 203 06 73

De Fietsenfikser
Amerikalei 173
2000 Antwerpen
+32 3 238 32 00
jakke@fietsenfikser.be www.fietsenfikser.be

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres
Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Antwerp by Bike

Guided bike tours (individual and group bookings accepted)

Address: Steenplein, 2000 Antwerpen
Internet: www.antwerpbybike.be

FoMu | FotoMuseum

Do you like photos or are you a (n amateur) photographer? Then do visit FoMu and step into the fascinating world of photography! The Photo Museum's permanent collection will teach you a thing or two about the history of photography. During the temporary exhibitions you can take a closer look at the work of Belgian as well as internationally renowned photographers. In 2013 you can discover works by Weegee and many others.

Photo: FoMu @ Guy Voet
Address: Waalsekaai 47, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 242 93 00
Internet: www.fotomuseum.be

Koningin Fabiolazaal | KMSKA

The monumental Royal Museum of Fine Arts Antwerp in Antwerp's Zuid district is currently closed for renovation until 2017. But don't worry, because the museum, in collaboration with the Province of Antwerp, is presenting temporary exhibitions of its collection of nineteenth and twentieth century art in the Queen Fabiola Room. Until 24 February 2013 you can visit an exhibition of the work of the famous Belgian expressionist, Constant Permeke here. The next exhibitions are 'Avant-Garde' and 'Modern New Highlights'.

Address: Jezusstraat 28, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 224 95 61
Internet: www.kmska.be

Maagdenhuismuseum

The Maidens' House Museum is a hidden gem. In this historic sixteenth-century building you can take a closer look at the phenomenal collection of the OCMW

(public social welfare centre). Here you will find paintings by Rubens, Van Dyck and Jordaens as well as stunning sculptures and furniture from the fifteenth until the eighteenth century. The Maidens' House used to be a girl's orphanage; hence its name and a lot of the items in the collection refer to this period in its history.

Address: Lange Gasthuisstraat 33, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 338 26 20
Internet: www.ocmw.antwerpen.be/maagdenhuismuseum

Middelheimmuseum

Middelheimmuseum is a unique place in Antwerp. This stunning park features an impressive art collection and amazing exhibitions. Some of the leading artists whose sculptures are on display in Middelheim Museum include: Auguste Rodin, Rik Wouters, Ai Weiwei and Erwin Wurm. The completely renovated castle – with a reception, café and museum shop – is the open-air museum's beating heart. There's always something new to discover!

Address: Middelheimlaan 61, 2020 Wilrijk
Phone: +32 3 288 33 60
Internet: www.middelheimmuseum.be

Museum Vleeshuis

Butcher's Hall tells the story of 600 years of sound and music in Antwerp. Find out more about the enchanting history of street musicians, heralds and carillon players. The Antwerp opera, instrument building, house music and dance are also covered in detail. Do not expect to visit a conventional instrument museum. Butcher's Hall takes you on a lively journey to the world behind the music.

Address: Vleeshouwerstraat 38-40, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 292 61 00
Internet: www.museumvleeshuis.be

Rockoxhuis

From February 2 2013 visitors to the Rockox House in Antwerp will be able to see how an Antwerp art collection must have appeared in the Golden Century. More particularly, the residence of burgomaster Nicolaas Rockox (1560-1640) is being transformed into a luxurious art cabinet with top items from Antwerp's KMSKA and the most important works from the Rockox House itself. On display will be a range of fine paintings by such masters as Van Eyck, Rubens and Van Dyck. A chance, then, to immerse yourself in the world of the rich citizen of the seventeenth century.

Address: Keizerstraat 10-12, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 201 92 50
Internet: www.rockoxhuis.be

Saint Andrew's Church

In the early sixteenth century the Augustinian Friars built St. Andrew's Church in the popular St. Andrew's neighbourhood, which today is also the beating heart of the Antwerp fashion industry. Inside you can see stunning Baroque altars and seventeenth-century works of art such as the monument for the Queen of Scotland, Mary Stuart. The dramatic nineteenth-century pulpit is a must-see.

Address: Waaistraat 5, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 232 03 84
Internet: www.mkaweb.be

Badboot

During the summer months Antwerp's Badboot is a floating open-air swimming pool. In winter it is converted into the largest floating ice skating rink worldwide. You can also enjoy typical Belgian dishes in the boat's brasserie, "Antoon".

Address: Kattendijkdok Oostkaai, 2000 Antwerp
Phone: +32 3 471 80 28 72
Internet: www.badboot.be

ANTWERP CITY CARD

The Antwerp City Card is your key to discovering Antwerp and its assets over a 48-hour period. The card not only offers a significant price discount, but will let you experience the real Antwerp: a historic yet vibrant city at the crossroads of old and new, the home of Baroque painter Rubens, the Belgian fashion capital, with some amazing shopping streets, the diamond capital of the world, a port city which loves the good life. The Antwerp City Card has all that and more.

The convenient Antwerp City Card provides you with free access to churches and museums. It also features a 25% discount on attractions, sightseeing and bicycle rentals. To top it off, you can use the exclusive benefits in the back of the guide to get the most of your visit to Antwerp.

A guide accompanies the Antwerp City Card. In this guide, you will find all of the practical information and vouchers that you need to enjoy exclusive benefits and discounts at numerous locations in Antwerp. Be sure to keep it with you throughout your travels in Antwerp!

The Antwerp City Card costs 28 euros and gives you:

FREE ENTRY to all Antwerp museums and monumental churches, including the world-famous Cathedral of Our Lady. Permanent collections and temporary exhibitions are included in the offer.

FREE GUIDE which describes all the venues and indicates them on a map.

A DISCOUNT OF AT LEAST 25% on tourist attractions, sightseeing and bike rentals.

EXCLUSIVE OFFERS for typical Antwerp and Belgian products, such as chocolate.

MAS / Museum aan de Stroom

If you visit one museum in Antwerp make it MAS (which opened in 2011). The sixty-metre high museum tower – an amazing feat of bold architecture – has become a new focal point in Antwerp. Here the city and the port (Europe's second biggest) meet in every sense of the word. The museum collection tells the story of the city, the port and the world and on the roof of MAS you can enjoy a 360° panoramic view of Antwerp.

Photo: Foto_Sarah_Blee__Neutelings_Riedijk_Architecten

Address: Hanzestedenplaats 1

Phone: +32 3 338 44 00

Internet: www.mas.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Cathedral of Our Lady

After 169 years of construction the cathedral of Antwerp finally dominated Antwerp's skyline in 1521 with a height of 123 metres. It was and still is the biggest Gothic building of the Low Countries. The Cathedral is a huge treasury of works of art. Eye-catchers include two masterpieces by Rubens: The Raising of the Cross and The Descent from the Cross. Currently the Cathedral is hosting a splendid exhibition, called Reunion, which showcases altarpieces from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in their original location. Absolutely worth visiting!

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Handschoenmarkt

Phone: +32 3 213 99 15

Internet: www.dekathedraal.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Museum Mayer van den Bergh

In the late 1800's the passionate collector Fritz Mayer van den Bergh amassed an amazing art collection. He purchased paintings by Peter Brueghel

for a pittance, managed to beat major museums purchasing stunning medieval sculptures. Mayer van den Bergh had an eye for the best quality in almost every genre. After his death his mother finally managed to make her son's dream come true: she built a museum, which only showcased his collection. And today Museum Mayer van den Bergh hasn't changed: it is still a museum of one man... and of his mother. Highly recommended in the Great smaller museums of Europe!

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Lange Gasthuisstraat 19

Phone: +32 3 232 42 37

Internet: <http://www.museumvandenbergh.be>

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Red Star Line

Between 1873 and 1934 the Red Star Line's ocean steamers ferried about 2.6 million adventurers and fortune seekers from Antwerp

to New York. For many people their passage started in the Red Star Line buildings in Antwerp. This museum tells the story of these passengers. The old buildings render their feelings and emotions tangible and visible. This new Antwerp museum also examines the issue of migration today. The Red Star Line Museum opens on 27 September 2013.

Address: Montevideostraat 3

Internet: www.redstarline.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Rubens House

Step into the shoes of the leading Baroque artist of his era. Rubens and his family lived in this palatial setting for well over 25 years and it is here that the artist created the lion's share of his work. Here he entertained Europe's nobility and Royalty and stored his impressive art collection in a beautiful art room. The charming garden, the creators' workshop and the fabulous collection draws hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

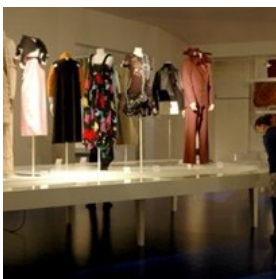

Address: Wapper 9-11

Phone: +32 3 201 15 55

Internet: www.rubenshuis.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

MoMu / Fashion Museum

The Fashion Museum has a stunning collection of over 25,000 items including clothes, shoes, accessories, lace and much more. It preserves historic costumes

as well as contemporary pieces. Every year the museum organises two themed exhibitions, featuring items from the museum's collection. Get ready for a beautifully illustrated expedition focussing on creativity, craftsmanship and trendy clothes.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Nationalestraat 28

Phone: +32 3 470 27 70

Internet: www.momu.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Museum Plantin-Moretus

This museum gives an overview of book printing from the 15th until the 18th century and owns the worlds oldest printing press from around 1600. The stately town house also boasts period rooms, decorated with tapestries, gilt leather and paintings – including a Rubens, sculptures, earthenware and porcelain. The Museum Plantin-Moretus/Prints Room received the ultimate recognition in 2005 and was named as a UNESCO world heritage and is the only museum worldwide to have been given this honour.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Vrijdagmarkt 22

Phone: +32 3 221 14 50

Internet: www.museumplantinmoretus.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

M HKA / Museum of Contemporary Art Antwerp

The Museum of Contemporary art or M HKA (Museum van Hedendaagse Kunst) is located in the bustling Zuid district, among the galleries and the lively cafés. Explore a fascinating collection of modern art in the old, converted corn silo. In 2013 M HKA will be organising several collection presentations as well as exhibitions by the Belgian artists De Gruyter & Thys and the American Kerry James Marshall.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

Address: Leuvenstraat 32

Phone: +32 3 260 99 99

Internet: www.muhka.be

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

Saint Paul's Church

Near the river Scheldt you find Saint Paul's Church, the former Dominican church, which was completed in 1639. The church has some splendid Baroque altars, more than 200 statues and 50 paintings. Masterpieces by artists such as Jordaens, Rubens, Van Balen and Van Dyck emphasise the church's unique appeal. The Calvary garden looks like a set from an epic film about Christ's suffering and resurrection.

Photo: Antwerpen Toerisme & Congres

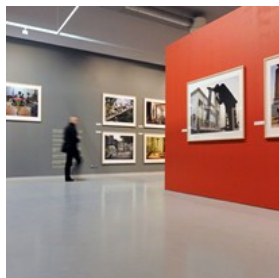

Address: Veemarkt 1

Phone: +32 3 232 32 67

Internet: www.topa.be/sint-pauluskerk

Discounted / free entrance with Antwerp City Card. More info in the City Card-section.

FoMu | FotoMuseum

Do you like photos or are you a (n amateur) photographer? Then do visit FoMu and step into the fascinating world of photography! The Photo Museum's permanent collection will teach you a thing or two about the history of photography. During the temporary exhibitions you can take a closer look at the work of Belgian as well as internationally renowned photographers. In 2013 you can discover works by Weegee and many others.

Photo: FoMu @ Guy Voet

Address: Waalsekaai 47, 2000 Antwerpen

Phone: +32 3 242 93 00

Internet: www.fotomuseum.be

Koningin Fabiolazaal | KMSKA

The monumental Royal Museum of Fine Arts Antwerp in Antwerp's Zuid district is currently closed for renovation until 2017. But don't worry, because the museum, in collaboration with the Province of Antwerp, is presenting temporary exhibitions of its collection of nineteenth and twentieth century art in the Queen Fabiola Room. Until 24 February 2013 you can visit an exhibition of the work of the famous Belgian expressionist, Constant Permeke here. The next exhibitions are 'Avant-Garde' and 'Modern New Highlights'.

Address: Jezusstraat 28, 2000 Antwerpen

Phone: +32 3 224 95 61

Internet: www.kmska.be

Maagdenhuismuseum

The Maidens' House Museum is a hidden gem. In this historic sixteenth-century building you can take a closer look at the phenomenal collection of the OCMW

(public social welfare centre). Here you will find paintings by Rubens, Van Dyck and Jordaens as well as stunning sculptures and furniture from the fifteenth until the eighteenth century. The Maidens' House used to be a girl's orphanage; hence its name and a lot of the items in the collection refer to this period in its history.

Address: Lange Gasthuisstraat 33, 2000 Antwerpen

Phone: +32 3 338 26 20

Internet: www.ocmw.antwerpen.be/maagdenhuismuseum

Middelheimmuseum

Middelheimmuseum is a unique place in Antwerp. This stunning park features an impressive art collection and amazing exhibitions. Some of the leading artists whose sculptures are on display in Middelheim Museum include: Auguste Rodin, Rik Wouters, Ai Weiwei and Erwin Wurm. The completely renovated castle – with a reception, café and museum shop – is the open-air museum's beating heart. There's always something new to discover!

Address: Middelheimlaan 61, 2020 Wilrijk
Phone: +32 3 288 33 60
Internet: www.middelheimmuseum.be

Museum Vleeshuis

Butcher's Hall tells the story of 600 years of sound and music in Antwerp. Find out more about the enchanting history of street musicians, heralds and carillon players. The Antwerp opera, instrument building, house music and dance are also covered in detail. Do not expect to visit a conventional instrument museum. Butcher's Hall takes you on a lively journey to the world behind the music.

Address: Vleeshouwerstraat 38-40, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 292 61 00
Internet: www.museumvleeshuis.be

Rockoxhuis

From February 2 2013 visitors to the Rockox House in Antwerp will be able to see how an Antwerp art collection must have appeared in the Golden Century. More particularly, the residence of burgomaster Nicolaas Rockox (1560-1640) is being transformed into a luxurious art cabinet with top items from Antwerp's KMSKA and the most important works from the Rockox House itself. On display will be a range of fine paintings by such masters as Van Eyck, Rubens and Van Dyck. A chance, then, to immerse yourself in the world of the rich citizen of the seventeenth century.

Address: Keizerstraat 10-12, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 201 92 50
Internet: www.rockoxhuis.be

Saint Andrew's Church

In the early sixteenth century the Augustinian Friars built St. Andrew's Church in the popular St. Andrew's neighbourhood, which today is also the beating heart of the Antwerp fashion industry. Inside you can see stunning Baroque altars and seventeenth-century works of art such as the monument for the Queen of Scotland, Mary Stuart. The dramatic nineteenth-century pulpit is a must-see.

Address: Waaistraat 5, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 232 03 84
Internet: www.mkaweb.be

DINING

Antwerpers take pride and have passion for food – true foodies at heart. In the Golden Age (16th century), all types of food, drink, herbs and spices from countries all over the world were transported through the Port. Even today, food is brought in from all corners of the globe, contributing to the city's fascinating diversity.

Food knows no boundaries in the city with exotic and foreign being held in high esteem amongst locals. New trends are tested and refined on the adventurous food lovers of the city. Many a cuisine buzzword is used here - European, exotic, classic French transformed with a delicate Belgian touch is what to consider on the menu of Antwerp! The biggest concentration of restaurants is in the historic city centre and Antwerpen-Zuid.

Antwerp City Card

Live the Antwerp way of life

€ 28
48 hours

FREE ENTRY to all Antwerp museum and monumental churches, including the famous Cathedral of Our Lady. Permanent collections and temporary exhibitions are included in the offer.

FREE GUIDE which describes all the venues and indicates them on a map.

A DISCOUNT OF AT LEAST 25% on tourist attractions, sightseeing and bike rentals.

EXCLUSIVE OFFERS for typical Antwerp and Belgian products, such as beer and chocolate.

Antwerp Tourism & Conventions
Grote Markt 15 • +32 3 232 01 03 visit@stad.antwerpen.be www.visitantwerpen.be

Historic Centre

Brasserie Appelmans

Nothing beats the location of this restaurant, literally only a few steps away from Antwerp's amazing Cathedral. Brasserie Appelmans serves great food with some nice Belgian touches like the handmade chips and the stew made with De Koninck, a locally brewed beer. The building is a combination of old and new, just like Antwerp itself.

Address: Papenstraatje 1

Phone: +32 3 226 20 22

Internet: www.brasserieappelmans.be

Email: info@brasserieappelmans.be

Grand Café Horta

Grand Café Horta is an icon in the centre of Antwerp's theatre district, very close to the pedestrianized shopping street Meir. The restaurant is named after Belgian art nouveau architect Horta, remains of his tore-down building 'Het Volkshuis' were used in this restaurant. Good choice if you are looking for a light lunch or a meal made with the famous Belgian beer.

Address: Hopland 2

Phone: +32 3 232 28 15

Internet: www.grandcafehorta.be

De Groote Witte Arend

Having a meal in this historic building is like stepping back into time, the origins date back to the 16th century. If you are looking for a nice and quiet meal in the heart of the historic city centre then is an excellent spot. In summertime this is a perfect place to enjoy the soundtrack of the city life.

Address: Reyndersstraat 18
Phone: +32 3 233 50 33
Internet: www.degrootewittearend.be Email: info@degrootewittearend.be

Central Station

Gran Duca

If you don't know it's there, you'd walk right past it. Take the elevator to the top floor and enjoy the fantastic view on Central Station and surroundings. Lovers of Italian food should definitely consider this restaurant.

Address: De Keyserlei 28
Phone: +32 3 202 68 87
Internet: www.granduca.be
Email: granduca@telenet.be

Antwerp Catering

Antwerp Catering brings together a number of Belgian gastronomy and other restaurants at De Keyserlei, near to Central Station. You can taste the Belgian chips at Oud België, drink the Belgian beers at Beer Central, go disco-style at Popcorn and finish the night at Kelly's Irish Pub. Whatever you prefer, you'll probably find it here.

Address: De Keyserlei 27
Phone: +32 477 52 46 58
Internet: www.antwerpcatering.com
Email: info@antwerpcatering.com

Brasserie Gustav

Next to Antwerp's opera building and across from the UGC Movie Theatre this is a excellent place to grab a bite before or after a performance or a movie. But there's also breakfast, lunch menus and much more. The restaurant has a nostalgic feel with the beautiful high ceiling, large mirrors and marble walls.

Address: Van Ertbornstraat 2
Phone: +32 3 225 55 28
Internet: www.brasseriegustav.be
Email: operagustav@hotmail.com

Eilandje

Lux

The building in which Lux is housed today was once the residence of a Polish shipping company. Many original features have been maintained including wood panelling, gilded mouldings and mosaic floors. The view on the MAS museum is an added bonus. They serve Belgian cuisine with Italian and French undertones.

Address: Sint-Aldegondiskaai 20
Phone: +32 3 233 30 30
Internet: www.luxantwerp.com

Het Pomphuis

If you want to experience the grandeur of the Port of Antwerp, you have to come to Pomphuis. This restaurant is located in a monumental building that was used to pump water out of the adjacent dock. It offers a great dining experience.

Address: Siberiastraat
Phone: +32 3 770 86 25
Internet: www.hetpomphuis.be
Email: info@hetpomphuis.be

Felixpakhuis

This beautiful restored warehouse is located at the marina of Willemdok and very close to the MAS museum. They serve lunches and dinners with a focus on seasonal produce.

Address: Godefriduskaai 30
Phone: +32 3 203 03 30
Internet: www.felixpakhuis.nu

Zuid

Hippodroom

Steps away from the monumental museum of fine arts, this restaurant serves French-Belgian cuisine with global influences.

Address: Leopold De Waelplaats 10
Phone: +32 3 248 52 52
Internet: www.hippodroom.be
Email: info@hippodroom.be

Fiskebar

Lovers of seafood should not miss this restaurant. Fiskebar is a small simple place. It focuses on fresh fish: tuna, king crab, prawns, oysters, lobster, mussels, it all can be found here.

Address: Marnixplaats 12
Phone: +32 3 257 13 57
Internet: www.fiskebar.be

L'épicerie du cirque

Named after the grocery shop that was located here, this is now a charming restaurant with fastly changing menus to surprise the guests.

Specialties include seafood, vegetarian dishes and 'forgotten vegetables'. After dinner you can hop on to the other side for a drink in one of Antwerp's most popular bars 'Hopper'.

Address: Volkstraat 23
Phone: +32 3 238 05 71
Internet: www.lepicerieducirque.be Email: info@lepicerieducirque.be

CAFES

Coffee is booming in Antwerp. These are the places where you get the best coffee:

Caffènation

"One Drug, One Café, One Caffènation" is the slogan of Caffènation. Once over the threshold, you almost stumble over the sacks of house blend coffee. Inside is a pleasant, no-nonsense atmosphere, typical of a business that has nothing more to prove. The music is slightly harder and both the service and the interior have a rough edge.

Most coffees come from their own roasting business, which also supplies many other bars and restaurants in Antwerp. Furthermore almost all local baristas made their first espresso here. If you want to take home some typical Antwerp coffee, choose from a variety of bags of the bar's own coffee beans.

Address: Mechelsesteenweg 16
Opening hours: Maandag - vrijdag: 8.30 - 19u. Zaterdag: 9-19u. Zondag: 11-18u
Phone: +32 486 323 015
Internet: www.caffenation.be
Email: caffenation@gmail.com

Normo

At Normo, the jute sacks of raw coffee beans are displayed on pallets on the floor. Owner Jens Oris has put an authentic coffee roaster in the middle of his business, and roasts the beans during normal business hours. This "micro roastery" makes Normo perhaps the most independent coffee business in the city.

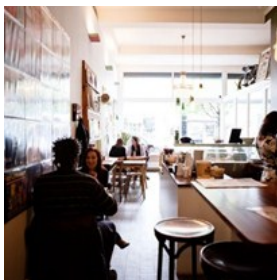

Address: Minderbroedersrui 30
Opening hours: Maa - Vrij: 10:00 - 19:00. Zat: 10:00 - 18:00
Email: <http://www.normocoffee.be/>
More Info: Historic city centre

Broer Bretel

Two brothers wearing braces serve great coffee and full-flavoured tea. The homemade Great Granny Ice Tea (with parsley!) comes highly recommended. On the wall, there are Polaroid photos of the nicest customers. Broer Bretel is the ideal place to talk quietly after a visit to the MAS museum.

Address: Nassaustraet 7, t'Eilandje
Opening hours: Maa-Zat: 9:30 - 18:00u. Zondag : 10:30 - 18:00u
Phone: +32 484 15 82 96
Internet: www.broerbretel.be
Email: broerbretel@gmail.com

Mademoiselle Moustache

You immediately feel at home in this recently opened, angular shop. Mademoiselle Moustache serves not only coffee, but also homemade shakes, soups and sandwiches at her counter.

Address: Paardenmarkt 21

Opening hours: Ma-Vr 10:00 - 18:00u. Zo 11:30 - 18:00u.
Internet: <http://www.mademoisellemoustache.be/>

Starfish & Coffee

Looking for a cosy place in the shadow of "den Bell"? At Starfish & Coffee, owner Katja bakes delicious crumbles, cakes and "chocolate tarts". Try the homemade Ginger Tea too.

Address: Bresstraat 9, Zuid
Opening hours: di-vr: 9.30-18u zo: 13-18u
Phone: +32 486 98 76 77
Internet: www.starfishandcoffeeantwerpen.blogspot.com

Coffee & Vinyl

This stately mansion with a coffee lounge at the front and a record bazaar at the rear gives the drinks menu a rock'n'roll touch. Try a Flat Barry White (double shot cappuccino) or a Snoop Doggy (chocolate milk with Maltesers and honey).

Address: Volkstraat 45, Zuid
Opening hours: Di - Zat : 10-19u. Zo : 12-19u.
Phone: +32 3 337 77 93
Internet: www.coffeeandvinyl.com

Revista

Revista combines coffee, free wifi and a whole array of international magazines and newspapers, the holy trinity for bloggers and fashion students. Revista also offers soups and sandwiches, so you can easily spend a whole day there.

Address: Karel Rogierstraat 47, Zuid
Opening hours: Ma-Zo : 08.00 - 20.00u

De Dikke Kat

De Dikke Kat is a coffee bar and exhibition space under one roof with limited but original menu and walls full of beautiful things to see. Try a "kabouter (gnome)" or a "honey poppie" while you peruse the photographs, paintings and sculptures on display here.

Address: Kasteelpleinstraat 26, Zuid
Opening hours: Ma-Vr: 08.00 - 18.00u. Zat : 10.00 - 18.00u.

Internet: www.dedikkekat.be Email: isabelle@dedikkekat.be

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

'Antwerp by night' starts with good food, always a highlight. Chatting away the hours with friends in a funky bar or on the river terraces in the summer is the low key 'night out'. For an adrenalin pumping, party night, the city is your dance floor - salsa, hard rock, disco or drum 'n bass, the beat thumps and the dance clubs heave around the city center and along the river Scheldt.

Café Storm

If you need to contemplate on your visit to the MAS museum then you don't have to go far. Located in the MAS building this is the ideal place to kick back, relax and enjoy your drink. If you can, try to get hold of an outdoor seat. The view on the dock is amazing.

Address: Hanzestedenplaats 5
Phone: +32 3 231 43 00
Internet: www.cafe-storm.com

Cocktails at Nine

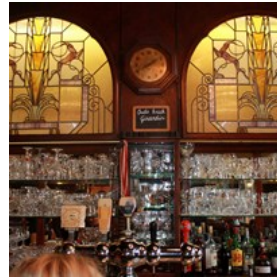

Next to Antwerp's Cathedral you can enjoy great cocktails in an amazing setting: this building is over 200 years old. On a hot summer night you can have a seat in the inner courtyard. In colder temperatures gather around the open fire.

Photo: Cocktails at Nine
Address: Lijnwaardmarkt

Phone: +32 3 707 10 07
Internet: www.cocktailsatnine.be

Paters Vaetje

In Antwerp you have to try the Belgian beers. At Paters Vaetje you can make a choice out of more than 200 kinds. Try a few of them and you will realise why Belgium is the beer capital of the world. Everybody likes this cozy, little bar: students, tourists and locals. Open until very late.

Photo: Paters Vaetje
Address: Blauwmozelstraat 1
Phone: +32 3 231 84 76
Internet: www.patersvaetje.be

Sips

The best cock- and mocktails in town are served at Sips. Chief bartender Manuel can make 1.000 cocktails with the original ingredients by heart. Some of the recepies go back to 1790. He also invents new drinks.

Photo: Cocktail Bar Sips
Address: Gillisplaats 8
Phone: +32 477 63 91 52
Internet: www.sips-cocktails.com

De Muze

This bar is a monument of Antwerp nightlife and international jazz scene. Check out the live performances in this cozy bar.

Address: Melkmarkt 15
Phone: +32 3 226 01 26
Internet: www.jazzmuze.be

Petrol

This club is located in an old factory and has retained its industrial look. They host live performances as well as DJ sets. The emphasis is on alternative music and electro dance.

Address: D'Herbouvillekaai 25, 2020 Antwerpen
Internet: <http://www.petrolclub.be>

Noxx

Noxx Antwerp opened in 2007 and since then it has become one of the biggest clubs in Belgium, with four rooms, a champagne bar and spectacular light shows.

Address: Straatsburgdok Noordkaai 3, 2030 Antwerpen
Internet: <http://www.noxxantwerp.com>

Den Engel

This is one of Antwerp's most authentic cafés. The history of this building dates back to the fourteenth century. People of all ages enjoy hanging out here with a beer.

Address: Grote Markt 3, 2000 Antwerpen
Internet: <http://www.cafedenengel.be>

De Vagant

In De Vagant you can enjoy a wide range of Belgian jenevers (they serve over 200 different ones!). The café is situated on a picturesque street, with a stunning view of the Cathedral.

Address: Reyndersstraat 25, 2000 Antwerpen
Internet: <http://www.devagant.be>

Café Hopper

This jazz café has been named after the American painter, Edward Hopper and is widely known in Antwerp. Every week the café hosts several performances.

Address: Leopold De Waelstraat 2, 2000 Antwerpen
Internet: <http://www.cafehopper.be>

Café d'Anvers

Located in a former church in Antwerp's red light district Café d'Anvers has been a favourite of Antwerp clubbers since 1989. You can dance the night away to house, techno and r&b here. On Fridays and Saturdays the club opens at 11 p.m. No cover on Thursday, when you will mainly find students here.

Address: Verversrui 15, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 226 38 70
Internet: www.cafe-d-anvers.com

Red and Blue

Looking for a gay club? Then look no further because Red&Blue is Belgium's biggest gay club attracting an international audience from all over Europe and beyond.

Every first Sunday of the month they organise Studio 54, a fun disco party with a colourful dress code and loads of hits.

Attention: men only on Saturdays.

Photo: Red&Blue

Address: Lange Schipperskapelstraat 11, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 213 05 55
Internet: www.redandblue.com

Roxy Antwerp

ROXY

These days the Roxy Club occupies the 'shop', where Antwerp dock workers would go to be hired. Roxy is open on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Address: Rijnkaai 14, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 477 33 20 70
Internet: www.roxy-antwerp.be

D-Club

D-Club, a gay dance club, is located near one of the oldest train stations of Antwerp. Open on Saturday and also for rent for private parties and other activities. The club has two rooms and the audience is very mixed.

Address: Damplein 27, 2060 Antwerpen
Internet: <http://www.d-club.be>

Trix

The Trix concert hall is the place to be for anyone who enjoys alternative and innovative concerts. There are three rooms (Trix bar, Trix club and Trix zaal). Check the programme on their website.

Address: Noordersingel 28-30, 2140 Antwerpen
Internet: www.trixonline.be

SHOPPING

One of the many titles bestowed on Antwerp in the sixteenth century was 'triomfelycke coopstad' (triumphant shopping city). Even today, the city languishes in the accolades of shoppers in the know - shopping in Antwerp means pedestrian streets, historic dwellings and bustling shopping centers.

Do you want to find out how Antwerp became a fashion capital? Hear more about the stories of the designers, the Academy, find out fashion facts and learn more about special places to go? Then download the Fashion in Antwerp app (<http://www.fashioninantwerp.be>). You can choose from five routes and one Best of, or 64 unique locations which tell the story of fashion in Antwerp, from the sixteenth century to the present day.

Meir

The Meir, linking the fashion district and the Quartier Latin is a pedestrianized shopping street lined with 18th and 19th century facades. International chains jostle for attention with small Antwerp designer boutiques. Between the Meir and Hopland, another upmarket street is a shopping complex with an elegant edge, the Stadsfeestzaal has 40 luxurious stores lavishing in the restored marble, gilded and mosaic interior. Sint-Katelijnevest offers hi-fi, computer and office equipment.

Wilde Zee

The Burie Chocolate shop at 3 Korte Gasthuisstraat epitomizes the De Wilde Zee area elegant, full of delicious treats and welcoming. Along Lombardenvest, Wiegstraat, Groendalstraat, Schrijnwerkerstraat and Korte Gasthuisstraat is yet another shopping mecca for shopaholics. De Wilde Zee is a gentle and pleasant neighbourhood, specializing in delicatessens, pralines, fashion boutiques, a social atmosphere and a laid back clientele! Nieuwe Gaanderij passage with its clothes and make-up stores leads you gracefully through to Huidevettersstraat.

Quartier Latin

The Quartier Latin elegantly mixes boutiques, atmosphere and a good dose of laid back charm. The classiest boutiques and specialty stores are on Schuttershofstraat and the Horta complex, along Hopland. Leopoldstraat draws in the antiques collectors while Mechelsesteenweg is known for interior decor paraphernalia. Nearby Leopoldstraat, is antique lovers haven with bric-a-brac galore, reminiscent of a harbour city. The Horta Complex, a brand new addition next to the Stadschouwburg is brimming with stylish boutiques, a grand Art Nouveau café and art gallery.

Fashion District

Today, the Modenatie on the corner of Nationale and Drukkerijstraat is the epicentre of the fashion district. Housing the Flanders Fashion Institute (FFI), the Fashion Museum (MOMU) and the Fashion Academy, it's a good place to start to get the unique vibe. For fashion aficionados, big designer names gravitate toward the welcome uniqueness of Antwerp. For Antwerp fashion at its most rocking, the area around Kammenstraat, Lombardenvest and St Antoniusstraat beckons.

Zuid district

South of the centre between the Amerikalei and the river is the Zuid District located - known for wide boulevards and historic buildings, Art Nouveau is definitely the style here! Walking along the river is like browsing through an architecture book – styles, design shops, interior showrooms and contemporary galleries sit side by side. Surely the trendiest area of the city, there is an abundance of designer restaurants, shops and cafes with a clientele to match!

Around Central Station

Antwerp's pavements have been paved with diamonds for at least 500 years! The km2 diamond district around the Central Station, offers 1800 diamond shops so shop around. If you are looking for the best, as girls do... go for the 'Antwerp Cut', known around the world as a brilliant cut of the highest quality.

Historic City Centre

There is nowhere better to begin a shopping trip to Antwerp than in the traditional heart of the city - the Grote Markt and Groenplaats. People watching is the new shopping so don't lose track of time over a De Koninck and chips. The Grand Bazaar Shopping Centre links Eiermarkt and Schoenmarkt with 50 shops, the biggest indoor centre, it is a good place for book and clothing shopping. Kloosterstraat is for new hippies - recent antiques, paintings, old furniture and home accessories as well as Fifties' and Sixties' design. Close by on Lange Koepoortstraat, rare and antique books and music is on sale.

EVENTS

Reunion. From Quinten Metsijs to Peter Paul Rubens

In 1559 the Church of Our Lady was re-named the Cathedral of Our Lady. During its 450-year existence, the Cathedral has become a veritable treasury of religious art, which was painted and sculpted by renowned masters. Until the French Revolution, they were commissioned to decorate the pillars, chapels and walls of the Cathedral. In the wake of this upheaval, several altarpieces were transferred to museums, including the Royal Museum of Fine Arts in Antwerp.

Address: Groenplaats 21
Phone: +32 3 213 99 51
Tickets: Price € 5 Until 2017
Internet: www.dekathedraal.be
More Info: Onze-Lieve-Vrouwekathedraal

Fashion: Happy Birthday Dear Academie!

Party time! This year Antwerp will be celebrating the 350th anniversary of the foundation of the Royal Academy of Fine Arts and the 50th anniversary of its Fashion Department, in its museums and on the streets. MoMu, Antwerp's fashion museum, will highlight the success story of Antwerp fashion while MAS has put together an exhibition which focuses on the Academy's amazing history, featuring works by Rubens, Van Gogh and Panamarenko, among others. The celebrations will also take to the streets: gigantic Fashion Totems will be installed throughout the city, which represent the world of the world-renowned Antwerp fashion designers. Happy Birthday Dear Academie!

Opening hours: From September 8th 2013
Internet: www.hbda.be

Red Star Line: a new museum in Antwerp

On September 28th the new Red Star Line Museum in Antwerp will open. Between 1873 and 1934 the Red Star Line's ships ferried 2,6 million adventurers and fortune-seekers from Antwerp to New York. For many people the crossing started in the Red Star Line buildings. Visit the original buildings, experience the fascinating tale of the passengers and discover the relationship with contemporary immigrations stories.

Address: Montevideostraat 3, 2000 Antwerpen
Opening hours: From September 28
Internet: www.redstarline.be

The Golden Cabinet. The Royal Museum at the Rockox House.

During the latter part of the sixteenth century and the early part of the seventeenth, the Scheldt city of Antwerp enjoyed an especially favourable artistic and economic climate that made it the prime production and trading centre for luxury articles. It was a time when many patricians and merchants built up rich collections of contemporary and ancient art, though the majority of those collections have – alas – come to be dispersed in the course of time. From 2 February 2013, however, visitors to the Rockox House in Antwerp will be able to see how an Antwerp art collection must have appeared in the Golden Century. More particularly, the residence of burgomaster and patron Nicolaas Rockox (1560–1640) is being transformed into a luxurious art cabinet with top items from Antwerp's Royal Museum of Fine Arts (closed for renovation) and the most important works from the Rockox House itself. On display will be a range of fine paintings by such masters as Van der Weyden, Memling, Van Eyck, Rubens and Van Dyck. A chance, then, to immerse yourself in the world of the rich citizen of the seventeenth century.

Address: Rockox House, Keizerstraat 10-12, 2000 Antwerpen
Opening hours: From February 2nd 2013
Internet: www.rockoxhuis.be

About Coming and Going

The new Red Star Line Museum opens on 28 September in Antwerp. In its next exhibition "ABOUT COMING AND GOING" the Prints Room of the Museum Plantin-Moretus will share its reflection on migration in 50 prints and drawings. Five newcomers from all over the world who live in Antwerp were invited to make their own selection of works. They tell their own story with these prints or drawings.

Address: Vrijdagmarkt 2, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 221 14 50
Internet: www.museumplantinmoretus.be

ACCOMMODATIONS

Whether you choose a charming luxurious hotel, one of the city's many individual B&Bs or a campsite, they will all welcome you with open arms.

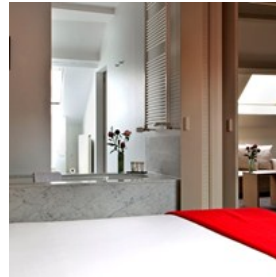

Elzenveld Hotel Seminarie

In the former Saint-Elisabeth hospital and monastery, steeped in history, you find today Elzenveld Hotel and Seminar Centre. Elzenveld is located in the centre of the city, very near to the most important shopping streets and Antwerp's Fashion District. Yet it is a peaceful oasis surrounded by beautiful greenery and right next to the Botanical Garden. Elzenveld can accommodate guests in hotel rooms and in apartments. Everything you expect? They think so and they hereby invite you to spend some quality time in another era. You will feel right at home. Elzenveld is your ideal vantage point to explore the culinary and artistic richness of Antwerp.

Address: Lange Gasthuisstraat 45, Antwerp
Phone: +32 3 202 77 11
Internet: www.elzenveld.be

Hotel Julien

excellent.

Hotel Julien is a charming boutique hotel located in the centre of Antwerp. It features a contemporary décor in an historic building. Staff, service, breakfast, are all seen as

Address: Korte Nieuwstraat 24
Phone: +32 3 229 06 00
Internet: www.hotel-julien.com
Email: info@hotel-julien.com

Hilton Hotel

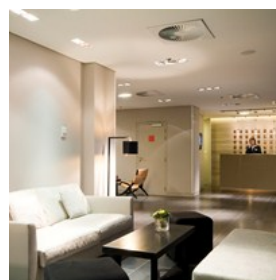

Antwerp's Cathedral.

You can't be more centrally located than in Hilton Antwerp. This hotel boasts Belgium's largest hotel ballroom and offers amongst others dining with views on

Address: Groenplaats 32
Phone: +32 3 414 20 18
Internet: www.hilton.co.uk/antwerp

Park Inn

Perfect location if you travel by train and arrive in Antwerp's stunning Central Station. Excellent price/quality ratio.

Address: Koningin Astridplein 14
Phone: +32 3 202 31 70
Internet: www.parkinn.com/hotel-antwerpen

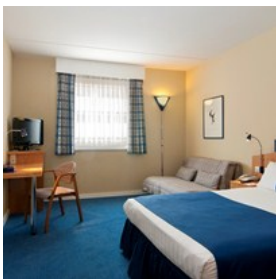

Leopold Hotel

Renovated hotel close to Central Station. The hotel offers parkview rooms and is located in Antwerp's diamond district.

Address: Quinten Matsijslei 25
Phone: +32 3 231 15 15
Internet: www.leopoldhotelantwerp.com
Email: info.antwerp@leopoldhotels.com

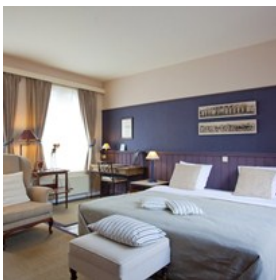

Holiday Inn Express

If you want to stay near the new museum MAS this hotel is a good choice. Good price/quality ratio and standard Holiday Inn service.

Address: Italiëlei 2A
Phone: +32 3 859 50 95
Internet: www.hiexpress.com

Hotel 't Sandt

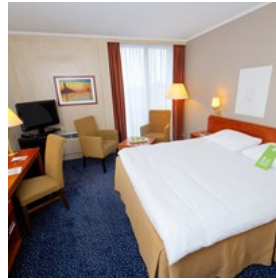

This seventeenth-century neo-Rococo stately dwelling has been converted into a luxurious, contemporary hotel in the historic city centre. Enjoy the Italian courtyard garden and the hotel's unique summer terrace with a view of the Cathedral.

Address: Zand 13-19, 2000 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 232 93 90
Internet: <http://www.hotel-sandt.be>

Hotel Scandic Antwerpen

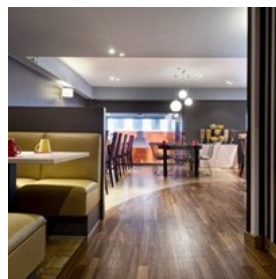

If you are visiting Antwerp by car then the Hotel Scandic is the right choice as it is located near the ring road. The hotel has free Internet as well as a gym, sauna, hamam and indoor swimming pool.

Address: Lt. Lippenslaan 66, 2140 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 235 91 91
Internet: <http://www.scandichotels.com>

Antwerp City Center Hotel

This recently renovated mid-price category hotel is situated in the heart of Antwerp's diamond district, near Central Station. It has 70 spacious and comfortable rooms.

Photo: Antwerp City Center hotel
Address: Appelmannsstraat 31, 2018 Antwerpen
Phone: +32 3 203 54 00
Internet: <http://www.antwerppchotel.com>

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Antwerp is located centrally in Europe and can be easily reached by bike, by car, by train and by plane. The city is situated at a crossroads of motorways and prides itself on a modern railway network, which extends to the center of the city. The city also has an extensive network of tram and bus lines.

Airport

Brussels Airport Web:
www.brusselsairport.be Belgium's biggest and most important airport is situated 45 km from Antwerp city centre, a 40 minute drive by car.

Train: 4 connections each hour to Brussels North Station from where there are 3 trains each hour to Antwerp. 9,90 euro one way. Starting in June there will be a new train link between Brussels Airport and Antwerpen Centraal.

Travelling time: 34 minutes, price: 12,40 euro.

Airport Express: a direct coach connection between train station 'Antwerpen Centraal' and Brussels Airport. There is also a stop at L. Legrellelaan in Antwerp, in front of the Crowne Plaza hotel. Travel time is 45 minutes (depending on traffic), the coach goes hourly in both directions. Price: 10 euro one-way.

Web: www.airportexpress.be

Taxi: +/- 90 euro one-way

Antwerp Airport: 7 km from Antwerp city centre, 15 minute drive

Bus line 14 connection between railway station "Antwerpen-Centraal" and Antwerp Airport

Taxi: 15 minutes to the centre of Antwerp, +/- 15-20 euro

Antwerpen Centraal: the city can be comfortably reached by train. You arrive at Antwerp's unique railway station "Antwerpen-Centraal".

Web: www.nmbs.be

Velo

Since 2011 you can explore Antwerp with one of the thousand city bikes, called Velos. Wherever you are in the city centre there is always a Velo station within walking distance (maximum 400 metres). You can find a bike station at Grote Markt, near the Fashion Museum, near MAS, near your favourite bar and in many more locations. Velos have been designed for short distances. The first half hour of every rental is included in the price. If you rent it out for longer you will pay more. The easiest way to book a Velo is online at www.velo-antwerpen.be. For bike trips of half a day or more we recommend that you rent a bike from another company.

Photo: Velo Antwerpen

Internet: <http://www.velo-antwerpen.com>

Public Transport

Getting around the city Antwerp is a pocket-sized metropolis: compact and easy to navigate, even by foot if you feel like it. Approximately 1/5 of the historic city centre is a pedestrian zone and pedestrians have priority during many of the city's summer events. If you need to move at a faster pace, jump on a tram or bus operated by the Flemish public transport company, De Lijn. Fast, flexible and convenient, it's got Antwerp covered!

Enjoying a night out in town: if you are partying the night away on Friday and Saturday and still want to get home safely, the De Lijn trams run an hour later, tying in with the night buses. The night buses leave from Antwerp-South at 1.25 a.m. and 3.30 a.m. respectively and at 1.45 a.m. and 3.30 a.m. from Rooseveltplaats.

If you aren't quite ready to head home, you can always use a TOV ticket (Taxi-Public Transport ticket), giving you a 2 € discount on your taxi ride home.

Taxi

Considering a taxi? Good idea, they are fast and affordable.

Each taxi has a red recognition sign as proof that it's a licensed taxi. The rate is uniform and is controlled by the city. Don't forget to reserve your taxi beforehand or scan the streets for the orange taxi signs. You can also get a taxi at the click of a button by using the new app for iPhone and Android: <http://m.taxi4me.net/antwerp>

Antwerp Taxi: +32 3 238 38 38

DTM Taxi: +32 3 366 66 66

Metropole Taxi: +32 3 231 61 42

Taxi Sinjoor: +32 3 828 25 25

In case of any taxi-problems, you can contact the 'Blauwe Lijn' (blue line) of the Antwerp police: +32 800 123 12

Pharmacy

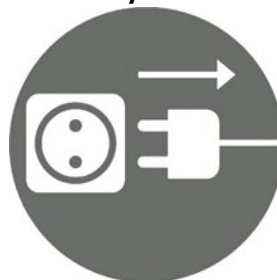

Phone: +32 900 105 12

Telephone

Country code: +32

Area code: 3

Electricity

220V

