

Nuremberg

in collaboration with Tourismus Nürnberg

Once you've experienced the city's enchanting historical ambience and seen the mighty Kaiserburg, you'll never forget them. The beautiful Old Town, which is the epitome of medieval charm, is nestled at the foot of the castle. It's home to historical buildings, spectacular churches, one of Germany's largest pedestrian areas and the traditional Hauptmarkt. But Nuremberg is more than just a melting pot of cultural highlights. Bavaria's second-largest city also offers a wealth of culinary delights, so why not stop off at one of the traditional Bratwursthäuser (sausage restaurants) and try a "3 im Weckla" (Nuremberg grilled sausages in a roll)?

THE CITY

Welcome to Nuremberg!

Nuremberg's wealth of sights, delights and highlights means there's always something for residents and visitors of all ages to discover. One of these is the Christkindlesmarkt, the city's most famous event. Year after year, 2.5 million visitors visit one of the world's most beautiful Christmas markets to experience its quaint atmosphere, taste the range of delicacies and listen to the Christmas Angel's opening prologue. The famous Bardentreffen and Blaue Nacht events are well worth a visit too, as is Rock im Park, one of Germany's largest rock festivals.

The Sigena Urkunde, a deed published in 1050 by Emperor Henry III, contains the first documented reference to Nuremberg. The Kaiserburg, which was designed as a political and military hub and was one of the key imperial palaces of the Middle Ages, is still the city's main landmark. Nuremberg's appointment as an Imperial City put it under direct control of the Emperor and it enjoyed a number of privileges as a result. But the city also became known for its many scholars and artists, such as the painter Albrecht Dürer, one of the city's most famous residents.

Nuremberg's unusual affinity with the crafts eventually made it one of the key trading towns in the Middle Ages. In more recent times, Nuremberg gained a less favourable reputation for itself during the National Socialist era. Even today, parts of the city are still home to gigantic ruins representing the Nazi regime's deluded notion of grandeur.

After the city was virtually razed to the ground in the Second World War, the decision was made to start rebuilding the historical Old Town to reflect its original glory. Along with neighbouring towns Fürth, Erlangen and Schwabach, the city today makes up the metropolitan area of Nuremberg.

The city's rambling shopping streets, vast green spaces, art and culture attract visitors to the city the whole year round.

DO & SEE

Nuremberg. It's a city where there's plenty to experience and even more to see. Why not start your day with a wander round the city or a visit to one of the many museums? Then unwind in one of the beautiful cafes or treat your tastebuds to Franconian specialties in one of the Old Town's many restaurants. You're sure to be enchanted by the picturesque flair of the Old Town, situated at the foot of the Kaiserburg. Take a look around and journey into times past...

The advertisement for the Nürnberg Card + Fürth features a blue background with a silhouette of the city skyline at the bottom. At the top, there is a row of seven icons: a person, a castle, a bridge, a shopping bag, a ticket, a tree, and a red square with the word 'NÜRNBERG'. Below these icons, the text reads: 'Ihr perfekter Begleiter für 2 Tage: Your perfect escort for 2 days: NÜRNBERG CARD + FÜRTH'. A diagonal banner contains the website 'tourismus.nuernberg.de'. A list of benefits is provided in German and English. At the bottom, three overlapping card images are shown: a blue adult card for 23€, a red kids card for 5€, and a red kids card for 0€. The website 'tourismus.nuernberg.de/nuernbergcard' is at the bottom.

The Kaiserburg

Dominating the city skyline, you can't fail to notice it: the Kaiserburg. At the time of the Holy Roman Empire, the castle was occasionally home to each of the emperors, and in the Middle Ages, it was one of the most important royal palaces. The sights here include the new castle museum, the palace with the emperor's living quarters, the Romanesque Double Chapel, the Deep Well and the Sinwell Tower. The neighbouring garden is a must-see too. It might be small, but it's a welcome contrast to the hustle and bustle of the city and is popular with residents too.

Main Market Square, Church of Our Lady and Beautiful Fountain

The large market square located at the heart of the city centre is surrounded by a multitude of must-see sights. The daily market takes place here too, where you can buy all sorts of tasty treats, flowers and spices. The ornate Beautiful Fountain is a well-photographed sight. The two rings on the fence are the focus of much attention. A legend says that if you turn the "golden ring" and make a wish, it will come true. The black ring, meanwhile, is said to bless women with children. The main market square is characterised by the facade of the Church of Our Lady constructed as an imperial royal chapel. Every day at noon the "Männleinlaufen" (mechanical clock and glockenspiel) takes place here - a daily event not to be missed!

Albrecht-Dürer's House

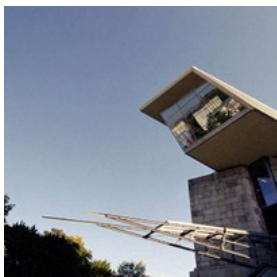

The Albrecht-Dürer-Haus is one of the most famous museums and exhibitions in Nuremberg. Between 1509 and 1528, it was Albrecht Dürer's home and workplace.

Today, the building is both a memorial and a museum. The rooms feature period furnishings, and visitors can see a demonstration of the printing procedure used in Dürer's lifetime in one of the bedrooms. The top floor, meanwhile, showcases copies of the artist's works. The museum houses a variety of temporary exhibitions featuring original works. We highly recommend taking the guided tour with Agnes Dürer, wife of the famous artist. She gives a faithful account of what life was like 500 years ago.

Documentation Centre Nazi Party Rally Grounds

Even today, the former Reichsparteitagsgelände (Nazi Party Rally Grounds) in the south of the city is still home to gigantic ruins representing the Nazi regime's deluded notion of grandeur. The 11 km² complex was where the Nazi Party orchestrated its propaganda campaign. The documentation centre is located in the north wing of the Kongresshalle, which was designed by the Nazis to hold 50 000 people and was never completed. The permanent "Faszination und Gewalt" ("Fascination and Terror") exhibition housed in the 1300 m² venue, chronicles the causes, relationships and consequences of the Nazi dictatorship.

Germanisches Nationalmuseum

The "Germanisches Nationalmuseum" is the largest museum of German art and culture in the world. The exhibitions take you on an exciting journey through time, showcasing hand axes from the Stone Age, the Ezelsdorf Golden Cone, medieval sculptures, the oldest globe in the world, paintings by Albrecht Dürer, baroque masterpieces and contemporary art. Other rooms feature textiles, clothes, jewellery, stained glass, handicraft, furniture and much more. The GNM is also home to the largest library of German art and culture, with more than 650 000 books.

Christkindlesmarkt

Year after year, on the friday before the first advent, Germany's most famous christmas market opens for the public. The historical surroundings of the Nuremberg main market square with the Church of Our Lady and the view of St. Lorenz and St. Sebald, the two Gothic churches in the Old Town, lend the Christkindlesmarkt its special charm. The stalls convey the unique look and feel of the market and visitors can look forward to the traditional offering of Lebkuchen (German gingerbread), Nuremberg sausages and mulled wine. The opening ceremony is an impressive experience for all, as the Nuremberg Christkind stands on the gallery of the Church of Our Lady and delivers the famous opening prologue at 5.30 pm precisely.

Handwerkerhof

A sight with special flair.

Situated at the heart of the city and surrounded by the towers and walls of the medieval fortifications, the Handwerkerhof invites visitors to discover a wealth of experiences. The "little city at the Königstor" (King's gate) opposite the Hauptbahnhof offers both traditional crafts and Franconian hospitality in charming surroundings. Why not round off your visit by trying some hearty specialties, washed down with a fresh Nuremberg beer or Franconian wine, in one of the cosy restaurants.

Historic Rock-Cut Cellars

An extensive labyrinth of underground passageways and cellar vaults has existed in the bedrock of castle hill for centuries - the Historic Rock-Cut Cellars. As early as 1380 red beer was stored in the subterranean cellars, sometimes comprising four levels, that had been cut into the Bursandstein (local Nuremberg sandstone). During the air raids of World War II many citizens found shelter in these historical vaults.

St. Sebald Church

Nuremberg's oldest town church St. Sebald dates back to approx. the year 1215. The church is located underneath the Imperial Castle and contains important works of art such as the imposing 4.17 meter high tomb built by the artist Peter Vischer - the bones of Nuremberg's patron saint Sebaldus are presumed to rest here. The famous Nuremberg painter Albrecht Dürer was baptized and got married there. Destroyed during World War II, St. Sebald was reconstructed in 1957.

St. Lawrence Church

The beautiful St. Lawrence Church is tucked away at the heart of the Nuremberg pedestrian area. Built in 1250, it has been an Evangelical Lutheran church since 1525.

The church has a magnificent west facade with a splendid portal richly decorated with statuary and a huge rose window (mid 14th century). Reconstruction work on the church started in 1952 following severe damage during the World War II.

Friedhof St. Johannis

The Friedhof St. Johannis is one of Europe's most important cemeteries, as a number of famous personalities, such as Albrecht Dürer and Veith Stoss, are buried here. A very beautiful place, it is also known as the "Cemetery of Roses" as a result of the many roses that grow on the site. The cemetery was commissioned as a result of the advanced council order that no longer permitted burials to be performed within the city walls. A new cemetery therefore had to be built in the surrounding area for both halves of the city. Why not visit the baroque Hesperidengärten afterwards?

DINING

Without a shadow of doubt, Nuremberg's most famous food export is the Nürnberger Rostbratwurst. No bigger than your finger, you can order 6, 8, 10 or 12 of these sausages, which are in most cases served with sauerkraut or potato salad. If you're feeling a bit peckish in between meals, why not try a "3 im Weckla" (3 sausages in a roll), which is generally garnished with mustard. Or if you're in the mood for a hearty meal, how about sampling the delights on Franconian menus, which traditionally include "Schäuferle mit Kloss und Soss" (roasted pork shoulder with dumplings and gravy) or Sauerbraten (marinated beef). You can't come to Nuremberg and not try the local delicacies!

Bratwurst Röslein

Situated at the heart of the Old Town since 1431, the world's largest sausage restaurant treats its guests to rustic Franconian cuisine. It's a cosy restaurant offering both traditional and modern cuisine.

Bratwursthäusle

Not far from the Sebalduskirche, the Bratwursthäusle has been giving original Nürnberger Rostbratwürste a hint of beechwood by cooking them over a wood fire since 1313. True to tradition, the Bratwursthäusle has its own butcher shop, where the Nuremberg specialities are freshly prepared each day. Hungry visitors can enjoy their sausages and a freshly pulled pint on the two terraces, which boast historical surroundings and views of the Sebalduskirche, the Rathaus and the Hauptmarkt. The little delicacies, which are always grilled to order, are served on a tin plate, just like in Albrecht Dürer's time.

SHOPPING

Like shopping? You won't be disappointed. Nuremberg has everything you'd expect from a modern city.

Hauptmarkt / Burgviertel

The Hauptmarkt and streets leading to the castle are littered with scores of souvenir shops. But there are also a large number of small speciality shops, of the Nuremberg master traders, jewellers and antique shops too, where you'll find all kinds of souvenirs and keepsakes for your friends and family. The tourist information centre on the Hauptmarkt is also worth checking out, as it sells postcards, Nuremberg Monopoly and much more.

Address: Hauptmarkt

Breite Gasse / Karolinenstrasse

Breite Gasse and Karolinenstrasse are the heart of the Nuremberg shopping district. Here, you'll find all sorts of established shops and large department stores. Younger shoppers are also catered for, thanks to well-known chains such as H&M, Görtz, Mango to name but a few.

Address: Breite Gasse, Karolinenstrasse

Trödelmarkt and Handwerkerhof

Head to the Trödelmarkt, situated between the Unschlittplatz and Karlsbrücke, for wonderful jewellers, small boutiques and shops selling quirky living accessories. The Handwerkerhof is a must if you're into ceramic, leather or silverware.

EVENTS

Nuremberg's events calendar is full to bursting with a multitude of fantastic activities. There's something different on almost every week of the year. A large number of tourists come to Nuremberg specifically for special events to make sure they don't miss out.

Blaue Nacht

Each year in May, culture comes to Nuremberg. Museums, theatres and other cultural venues are open until the small hours of the morning. Come and explore the Old Town, listen to music and performances on the streets of the city centre and marvel at art and light installations. Blaue Nacht is Germany's largest night-time cultural event. It has a different theme each year.

Internet: www.blauenacht.nuernberg.de

More Info: Various locations in the city centre.

Klassik Open Air

Klassik Open Air in Nuremberg's Luitpoldhain district is one of Europe's largest classic open-air events. The city's two large orchestras, the Nuremberg Staatsphilharmonie and the Nuremberg Symphoniker, attract an audience of around 100.000 people to their concerts each year. Admission free!

Address: Luitpoldhain

Rock Im Park

The city is rocking, and so are more than 40 000 visitors.

Because it has no specified style of music, Rock im Park attracts a very mixed audience. The event, which was held for the first time in 1976, is now one of the country's largest rock festivals. Famous bands such as AC/DC, The Scorpions, Green Day and The Red Hot Chili Peppers have performed here in the past to very enthusiastic audiences.

Address: Zeppelinfeld Nürnberg

Bardentreffen

Germany's largest free outdoor festival, Bardentreffen, attracts up to 200 000 people each year. It traditionally takes place each year on the first weekend of the Bavarian summer holidays. Both international and local musicians sing their hearts out on seven stages, scattered all over the Old Town. This free event is an absolute must for die-hard music fans!

Address: Insel Schütt, St. Katharina, Lorenzer Platz, Sebalder Platz, Kreuzigungshof, Trödelmarkt

Internet: www.bardentreffen.de

Altstadtfest

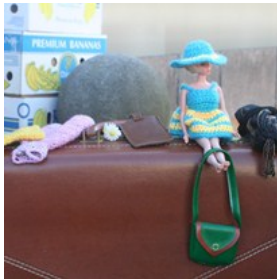

Its laid-back atmosphere attracts around one million visitors to the Old Town festival each year. The festival has been taking place for more than 40 years now. In around 60 events, 800 actors provide free entertainment, including folklore, the Hans Sachs plays, traditional sea jousting and jazz concerts. But the great programme of events isn't the only thing that draws the visitors in. The wide selection of food and drink is just as popular.

Address: Vordere Insel Schütt/Hans-Sachs-Platz
Internet: www.altstadtfest-nue.de

Trempelmarkt

Germany's largest flea market is held on the second weekend of May and September in the Nuremberg Old Town. Around 4000 stallholders sell both high-class antiques and all kinds of bits and bobs. The entire Hauptmarkt and the neighbouring streets are transformed into a real jumble paradise. Children, meanwhile, can sell off their old toys at free stalls.

Address: Hauptmarkt
Internet: www.maerkte.nuernberg.de
More Info: Hauptmarkt and the surrounding streets.

Nuremberg Folk Festivals

The largest folk festival in northern Bavaria provides a colourful programme for both young and old. The fairground is home to a multitude of rides and entertainment, where visitors can either be on the edge of their seats or sit back and relax. Franconian and international delicacies and a freshly pulled pint make visiting the festival all the more worthwhile. And to make the Volksfest twice as nice, it's held two times a year: in spring and in autumn.

Address: Volksfestplatz am Dutzendteich
Internet: www.volksfest-nuernberg.de

The world-famous Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt

This event is like a magnet, attracting millions of visitors from all over the world each year. And it's not one of the most beautiful Christmas markets in the country and one of the most famous in the world without good reason. The picturesque surroundings, the variety of culinary delights and the traditional programme of events make the Christkindlesmarkt a very special attraction. Don't miss the famous Nuremberg Christmas Angel's famous opening prologue at 5.30 pm on the Friday before the first advent!

Address: Hauptmarkt

Public Transport

The single ticket is the perfect choice if you're only looking to make one journey. It allows you to hop on and off as and when you please and even break up your journey. The price category 2 (respectively A) ticket is valid for 90 minutes and allows you to travel in one direction only.

If you only intend to travel on public transport now and again, your best option is the 10-Streifenkarte (10-stripe ticket) or the 5-Streifenkarte (5-stripe ticket). This type of ticket can be used for several passengers too.

The solo day ticket is a good option for individuals travelling alone. The day ticket plus, meanwhile, is perfect for groups of up to six people with a maximum of 2 adults. Both of these tickets allow you to travel wherever and whenever you want for an entire day!
