THE CITY

Photo: Chris

The Phoenicians founded Palermo as a trade port in 700 BC, and a long string of rulers followed. Carthage was the first to conquer it, followed by the Romans, who named it Panhormus. After the fall of the Roman Empire, the Vandals took over, followed by Arabian rulers who turned Sicily in to an emirate. Palermo transformed in to a magical city with mosques, minarets and markets. It is said that its beauty measured up well with Cordoba and Cairo.

During the crusades, the city's wealth was discovered by the Normans who conquered the city, but continued building on the Arabian legacy of tolerance and enlightenment. That era is known as "the Golden Years".

Today tourists are discovering a city with an exciting mix of medieval areas where washing is still hung on lines between buildings to elegant residential districts with palm trees and palatial villas. And then there's also the city's intense markets.

DO & SEE

Thanks to its rich and varied history, Palermo and its surrounding areas are full of architectural treasures. There is a Norman cathedral, several Baroque churches, opulent palaces, Doric temples and converted mosques—just to name a few.

One Day Market Cooking Class with Vincenzo and Mamma Lucia

These hands-on Cooking Classes are available everyday, upon request. They require a minimum of 2 participants and a maximum of 8. The class begins at 9,30 am, and includes a visit to the Capo Market, where we will taste some of Palermo's most unique street foods, and buy all the ingredients necessary for our recipes. The cooking class will be carried out in the kitchen at Ristorante Cin Cin.

The recipes you've prepared will be served for our lunch with great Sicilian wine and any other beverage you'd like. A complimentary apron and recipes are included.

Address: Via Manin, 22

Phone: +39 339 463 3979

Tickets: The cost is 150 € pp

More Info: To book, please write Vincenzo at clemente.vincenzo@gmail.com

Catacombe dei Cappuccini (The Catacombs)

The Catacombs of the Cappuccini Monastery have fascinated visitors for centuries—and it is easy to understand why: 8,000 mummified former residents of Palermo line the walls. If you like horror and the macabre, this is your destination.

Address: Piazza Cappuccini, 1, Palermo
Opening hours: Daily 9.00-12.00 and 15.00-17.00 (until 19.00 in summer). Closed Monday and Sunday morning and on holidays.
Phone: +39 091 212 117

Santa Caterina Church

A masterpiece! The style the church is built in is known as Sicilian Baroque, and the walls are covered with ornamental paintings, statues of saints and the Madonna, fruits and wild animals. Is it kitsch? Make up your own mind.

Address: Piazza Pretoria
Phone: +39 338 451 2011

Museo Archeologico Regionale

This museum is closed for restoration until further notice!

Museo Archeologico Regionale has art and handicraft spanning most of Palermo's history. The most exciting exhibits are the statues from the lost city of Selinunte.

Address: Via Olivella, 24 90145 Palermo
Opening hours: Mon 8.30-18.45, Tues-Sat 8.30-13.45, Sun 8.30-18.45
Phone: +39 091 611 6805

Teatro Massimo

Teatro Massimo is one of the largest theatres in Europe (7730 mq), a Neoclassical masterpiece started by Giovanni Battista Basile in 1875, and completed by his son, Ernesto, in 1897. Recently restored, it is now the lyrical temple of the city, staging the opera and ballet official season.

Address: piazza Verdi, 90138 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 605 3111
Internet: www.teatromassimo.it

Palazzo dei Normanni

The palace was built in 1130, which was the year of King Roger II's crowning. It's located inside the Norman Palace, which is definitely one of the most famous sights in Palermo.

Covered in dazzling Byzantine mosaics (akin to those in the church of the Martorana and in the Monreale Cathedral), it is a symbol of the political and cultural union operated by the Normans.

Address: Piazza Indipendenza, Palermo
Opening hours: Check opening hours before you visit, as they may vary.
Phone: +39 091 705 1111

Monreale

This little town with a population of 30,000 lies in the mountains southwest of Palermo. Its postcard-perfect views are only rivalled by the Norman Cattedrale di Monreale, Italy's largest medieval building which holds 6,000 square metres of Byzantine art.

Address: Monreale
Internet: www.monreale.net

San Giovanni degli Eremit (St. John of the Hermits)

This church is well known for its red domes that are excellent examples of the Arab influences in the 12th century. Originally this was a church, that was converted into a mosque and then again returned to Christians.

Address: Via dei Benedettini, 16, 90134 Palermo
Internet: www.diocesipa.it

Festa di Santa Rosalia

Festa di Santa Rosalia is an annual festival that takes place on July 15th. It is a celebration of the saint Rosalia who is the patron saint of Palermo, Italy, El Hatillo, Venezuela, and Zuata, Anzoátegui, Venezuela. She supposedly rid the city of the plague in 1624.

The festival is a memorable experience with fireworks, processions and music.

Ballarò and Borgo Vecchio - Historical Markets

The history and Arab influence that is so clear in Palermo has marked also the markets, which are very like the Arab "souks".

Ballarò is a food market where you also can buy fresh produce and fruit. Borgo Vecchio is another market well suited for buying vegetables and fruit. Both of these markets are located in the old town centre.

Palazzo Abatellis

Palazzo Abatellis is the palace that houses the Galleria Regionale della Sicilia - the Gallery of Art for the Sicilian region. The palace itself is archeologically interesting, but most people come here for the art.

Address: Via Alloro, 4, 90133 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 62 30 011

Stanze al Genio

Stanze al Genio is a museum where you can see various things dating back to the 15th century. The tile collection might be the most famous one and you also have the opportunity to buy some pretty spectacular souvenirs from the gift shop.

Address: Via Teatro Garibaldi, 11, 90133 Palermo
Phone: +39 340 097 1561
Internet: www.stanzealgenio.it

Ustica

Ustica is a volcanic island situated about an hour from Palermo. It is a brilliant day trip, thanks to the beautiful swimming waters, great snorkelling and scuba diving as well as the picturesque town.

Address: Ustica, Province of Palermo
Internet: www.ustica.org

Orto Botanico di Palermo

The Botanical Garden is considered to be a giant outdoor museum that has enabled studies on fascinating plants for about 200 years. It is a prestigious institution in Palermo and offers a pleasant way to spend a few hours.

Address: Via Lincoln, 2, 90123 Palermo
Opening hours: Open daily from 09.00-17.00
Phone: +39 091 23891236

Internet: www.ortobotanico.unipa.it

World Festival on the Beach

The World Festival on the beach takes place each year in the exclusive area Mondello. It is a celebration of beach culture and features activities like beach volleyball, paragliding and windsurfing.

Music concerts of various styles are also a common occurrence and you'll get inspired by the joy and the energy bubbling on the beach.

Address: Mondello, 90151 Palermo
Opening hours: Annually in the month of May
Internet: www.wwfestival.com

DINING

Photo: Toprural

Sicilian cuisine is rustic but exciting mainly thanks to the influence of the many rulers the island has had over the years. The Arabians introduced couscous and raisins, the Spanish brought hearth sausages and fried dishes.

Eating at small neighbourhood trattorias is recommended, as is visiting the market in La Vucciria where a freshly cooked chickpea rissole can be had.

Gagini Restaurant

Gagini Restaurant claims to be a "social restaurant", meaning that they mix food with art, music and fashion. Romantic lit candles and fresh flowers on the tables set the mood in this open and inspiring venue. If you desire something different from a "Social Dinner" don't miss their great atmosphere and perfect space for a dinner, either for two, a group of friends, family or business.

Address: Via dei Cassari, 35

Internet: www.ristorantealgabbiano.it

CAFES

The people in Palermo are almost as particular about their coffee as the Romans, and they don't mind travelling to get it. They know exactly which place serves the best granita al caffè—frozen ice with coffee and whipped cream. Or the best cup of gran caffè (a cappuccino without milk).

Pasticceria Alba

This café has sweets in all its forms, shapes and sizes, in fact, they have a sweet for every single holiday in Sicily. Pasticceria Alba started out as a tiny café and the owner slowly expanded the business with fresh ideas and he was the first person to make ice cream all year round. Today Pasticceria Alba is known all over the world for good quality.

Address: Piazza Don Bosco, 7, 90143 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 309 016
Internet: www.pasticceriaalba.it

La Preferita

This is as much an ice cream parlour as a café. Try the tartuffo La Preferita's own take on the Calabrian chocolate dessert.

Address: Via Villareale, 49, 90141 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 587 916
Internet: www.lapraferitabar.jimdo.com

Vittoria Café

Nice music in a soothing environment, two ingredients sure to make for a memorable experience. The food is tasty and the prices are acceptable.

Address: Via Agrigento, 13, 90141 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 304 973

Panificio Graziano

Panificio Graziano is widely known for their yummy pizza. This means there is often a long line of people waiting their turn.

Internet: www.oscarpasticceria.it

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

The nightlife in Palermo follows the same pattern as in other Mediterranean cities: much of the gathering happens before dinner, and when the meal is over—sometimes not until midnight—it's time to head back to the bars. The nightclubs don't fill up until late in the night, and thanks to the student population, Palermo has a vibrant nightlife. As always, the trendiest nightclubs of the moment can be found by asking the locals.

Kursaal Kalhesa

This unique bar is also a bookstore, internet café, and fish restaurant (with a great fish ravioli). Situated in an old palazzo ruin by the port, this is where Palermo's youth come to see and be seen.

Address: Foro Italico Umberto I, 1, 90133 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 616 2282
Internet: www.kursaalkalhesa.it

Gorky Club

Popular nightclub that occasionally has live shows. Good DJ's and a lively atmosphere make this a winner!

Address: via Ugo La Malfa, 96

Mikalsa

Mikalsa is a hip place that calls itself Il primo Bar à Bière della Sicilia, which is a more or less correct description—Sicily's best beer bar. It is possibly also the only one.

Address: Via Torremuzza, 27, 90133 Palermo
Phone: +39 339 314 6466
Internet: www.mikalsa.it

La Terrazza

This little bar and outdoor patio is in the garden of the Grand Hotel Villa Igeia. It has romantic, almost overly romantic, views of Palermo.

Address: Salita Belmonte 43, 90142 Palermo
Phone: +39 091 631 2111
Internet: www.villa-igiea.com

La Cuba

- "La Cuba Café, La Cuba Brasserie, La Cuba Tea Room, La Cuba Wine Bar, La Cuba Restaurant, La Cuba Lounge, La Cuba Party House."

Apparently it is difficult to put a label on this place, since it falls under so many different categories. The slogan of this colourful venue is: "Vision, taste, smell, hearing, touch - "get into the Cuba mood".

Address: Villa Sperlinga, Viale Francesco Scaduto, Palermo
Phone: +39 091 30 92 01
Internet: www.lacuba.com

SHOPPING

The large traditional Italian fashion brands, from Armani to Versace, can be found around Viale della Libertà.

There are a number of stores selling handicraft products that make for unique memories of the island.

Piccolopunto, on Via Villareale 52, is good for embroidered Sicilian bed linen and curtains. Antique embroideries can be found at Al Cancellato, Via Paolo Paternostro 82.

Palermo has plenty of shops selling very kitsch ceramics. For more elegant wares, head to the northern end of Via Maqueda. Le Cittedotte di Vizzari, on Corso Vittorio Emanuele 120, sell exquisite hand painted models of Palermo's palazzo's and churches.

For those looking for bargains and unique shopping, this can be explored at one of the many street markets. The largest of them all is La Vucciria. It specialises in food, though some of the stores and stands carry interesting or eclectic items that will look good in your home. Beware of the pickpockets at La Vucciria.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Photo: somemixedstuff

Whether you are planning a vacation, a special weekend or a business meeting, rest assured, you will find a place that appeals to you. Palermo offers a wide range of accommodation to suit all needs, a diverse collection of modern hotels and guest houses.
